Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED
AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY

USE AND DISCLOSURE OF HEALTH INFORMATION

Sol Recovery Community, Inc. (Agency) may use your health information, information that constitutes protected health information as defined in the Privacy Rule of the Administrative Simplification provisions of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, for purposes of providing you treatment, obtaining payment for your care, and conducting health care operations. The Agency has established policies to guard against unnecessary disclosure of your health information.

THE FOLLOWING IS A SUMMARY OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH AND PURPOSES FOR WHICH YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION MAYBE USED AND DISCLOSED:

To Provide Treatment. The Agency may use your health information to coordinate care within the Agency and with others involved in your care, such as your attending physician and other health care professionals who have agreed to assist the Agency in coordinating care. For example, physicians involved in your care will need information about your symptoms to prescribe appropriate medications. The Agency also may disclose your health care information to individuals outside the Agency involved in your care including family members, pharmacists, suppliers of medical equipment or other health care professionals.

To Obtain Payment. The Agency may include your health information in invoices to collect payment from third parties for the care you receive from the Agency. For example, the Agency may be required by your health insurer to provide information regarding your health care status so that the insurer will reimburse you or the Agency. The Agency also may need to obtain prior approval from your insurer and may need to explain to the insurer your need for the services that will be provided to you.

To Conduct Health Care Operations. The Agency may use and disclose health information for its own operations to facilitate the function of the Agency and as necessary to provide quality care to all the Agency's clients. Health care operations includes such activities as quality assurance improvement activities; protocol development, case management and care coordination; contacting health care providers and clients with information about treatment alternatives and other related functions that do not include treatment; professional review and performance evaluation; training programs including those in which students, trainees or practitioners in health care learn under supervision; accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities; review and auditing, including compliance reviews, medical reviews, legal services and compliance programs and business management and general administrative activities of the Agency.

For example, the Agency may use your health information to evaluate its staff performance, combine your health information with other Agency clients in evaluating how to more effectively serve all Agency clients, disclose your health information to Agency staff and contracted personnel for training purposes, use your health information to contact you as a reminder regarding a visit to you, or contact you as part of community information mailings (unless you tell us you do not want to be contacted).

For Appointment Reminders. The Agency may use and disclose your health information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment.

For Treatment Alternatives. The agency may use and disclose your health information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.
